PRODUCTION EXPENDITURE

FFO requests the applicant to provide the production expenditure resulting from the production of the Project by the Producer in India.

- Payments (including daily wages and allowances) to Bona Fide Indians that are subject to Indian payroll tax
- Payments to a supplier of goods or services which, although their principal place of business is outside India, has an office or branch within India, through which it is supplying the goods or services in India
- Living and accommodation allowances paid to any person on account of their living in India during production of the Project
- Indian workers’ compensation insurance payments
- Fringe benefits tax relating to benefits provided in India paid by the Producer
- Payments to Indian Suppliers (which for the avoidance of doubt may include independent contractors who are not subject to Indian payroll tax)
- Payments in respect of the supply of goods and services provided in India where arranged through an Indian Agent (for example, the booking of accommodation or car hire through a Indian Agent who is a travel agent)
- Payments for post-production services provided by an Indian Supplier
- Fees and charges relating to the use of land located in India
- Expenditure for international or interstate airfares provided by an Indian Supplier or arranged through an Indian Agent provided
- Expenditure for freight provided by an Indian Supplier or made through a Indian Agent
- Such other expenses that have been incurred in the due course of pre-production, principal photography and post production, as the case may be.
