Message

The need for timely, reliable and comprehensive data assumes utmost importance for data driven governance. Media and Entertainment is an important component of service sector having huge potentiality to contribute to growth of the economy of the country. Media & Entertainment ecosystem is a sunrise sector expected to grow at 8.8% CAGR to reach USD 53.75 billion in 2026. Various policy initiatives taken and its implementation needs to be backed by appropriate data to have the optimum outcome.

2. The Ministry of Information and Broadcasting is entrusted with the task of disseminating information about Government policies, schemes and programmes through the medium of mass communication. The Ministry is also the focal point regarding policy matters related to private broadcasting sector, administering of the public broadcasting service - Prasar Bharati, film promotion and certification and regulation of print media. To discharge the mandate given to this Ministry efficiently, data on the various aspects of the sector is an important input.

3. Keeping in view the data requirement of the Ministry and other Stakeholders in the sector, the Statistical Handbook on Media & Entertainment is a good initiative in this direction to bridge the data gap in the Sector.

4. I appreciate the efforts made by the Economic Wing of this Ministry to bring out this publication which will go a long way in meeting the data requirement of all stakeholders in the sector.

Preface

The Ministry of Information and Broadcasting is the face of the Government of India in reaching out to the masses. The crucial task of disseminating information about government policies, schemes and programmes through different media vehicles is entrusted to the Ministry. Radio, television, films, press and print publications, digital and social media, posters, advertising, and traditional modes of communication such as dance, drama, folk recitals, puppet shows – all these are effectively brought into play by the Ministry and its media units in dissemination and free flow of information. The Ministry is also the focal point regarding policy matters relating to private broadcasting, administering of the public broadcasting service (Prasar Bharati), multi media advertising and publicity of the policies and programmes of the Government of India, film promotion and certification and regulation of print and digital media. For taking policy decisions and its successful implementation the data on different segment of Media and Entertainment is an essential input.

2. From economic point of view Media and Entertainment is an important segment of service Sector which is growing at faster rate and has huge potentiality to contribute to GDP, creating employment opportunities, increasing share in export of services and attracting domestic as well as foreign investment. The Ministry is playing an important role in regulating as well as promoting growth of the sector. The data plays a vital role in taking appropriate policy decisions on the mandate given to this Ministry. Though data is available in different organizations within the Ministry and outside, but the consolidated data will facilitate and enhance the efficiency in decision making based on evidence.

3. Keeping this in view, the Statistical Handbook on Media and Entertainment Sector 2022-23 was planned to be published by collecting and collating relevant data from various sources. This Handbook will be updated every year to capture developments in different segment of the sector and make the contents more comprehensive.

4. This being a new initiative and first edition of the Handbook, suggestions to improve the content of the publication is most welcome.
